The 1956 Statesman

THE SENIOR CLASS

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

ROCHESTER

NEW YORK

*Good Luck
to a sweet
Frank DiBucaglio*

Foreword

*Good Luck
in the future,
Phil Mangan*

LIFE at Jefferson involves all the pupils, all the teachers and the administrators. It's a lot of serious business: maintaining honor rolls; obtaining jobs and getting into college; making teams, winning and losing; planning social events, class parties, lovely formals, dinners and banquets; and crowning the May Queen.

All this, through the 1955-1956 school year has been "Kynenicegoin'."

As you thumb through these pages, be assured that we, with mingled feelings of joy and sadness, present the 1956 Statesman, and wish everyone "Kynenicegoin'."

Jefferson High School

LOCATED in Edgerton Park, Rochester, New York, Jefferson High School possesses that something called "school spirit" that makes a good high school a great high school.

IN SUMMER

ALMA MATER

O hail to thee, our Jefferson,
We raise this song to thee;
The mem'ries dear that linger here
Are bound with loyalty,
O hail to thee, our Jefferson,
This joyful lay now hear;
Within thy walls, thy hallowed halls,
Our praises still ring clear.

O hail to thee, dear Jefferson,
Our hearts, our thoughts, are true;
This solemn vow is given now,
A pledge of love to you.
Though fate may draw us far away
And other duties call,
The friendships gained will be retained
To bind and hold us all.

Principal

DR. JAMES S. WISHART

SPEAKING in behalf of the entire student body, we of the yearbook staff wish to express our sincere and deep appreciation to Dr. Wishart, the principal of J.H.S., and a loyal friend of every student. Never once has he "let us down," nor has he shirked his responsibilities as our leader. We wish him the best of luck in the future. "Kynenicegoin', Doc."

MYRON WHITE
Vice-Principal

OUR new vice-principal came to us from Madison High where he had been teacher of mathematics and chairman of the department. His experiences there and with his own children at home have given him understanding and appreciation of the problems faced by high school people.

KYNENICEGOIN' THE STATESMAN

- In 1924 Jefferson, then a junior high school, published the first yearbook, the "Jeffersonian." It was dedicated to Ray K. Savage, the principal at the time. An outstanding baseball player, George Selkirk, was a member of the graduating class.
- In 1935, the Senior Annual was issued and dedicated to Miss Shelmadine and Arthur Simmons, the principal. Norma Page composed our Alma Mater.
- In 1940, David Densmore was Jefferson's principal. The yearbook was dedicated to Mr. Saxe. This year witnessed a change in our yearbook. Instead of being paper-bound, the book was bound in leather.
- In 1941, Arnold B. Swift became our principal. The yearbook was dedicated to Miss Hutchinson and Mr. Smith. Among the members of the graduating class was Bernard Izzo, a famed opera singer.
- In 1945, the yearbook was dedicated to the 21 January graduates who fulfilled their duty to our country. Arnold B. Swift was principal. Carl Tandoi, famed photographer, was a graduate.
- In 1946, our yearbook was christened the "Statesmen." Also, the National Honor Society was introduced in Jefferson High. Arnold B. Swift was still the principal.
- In 1951, the Senior class dedicated their yearbook to "Peace." The Student Counseling Center was started. Barbara Scarcella, who is now a teacher, was a member of the graduating class.
- In 1953, our yearbook was dedicated to Miss Flanagan, Mrs. Rodney, and Mr. Kelly. Although we lost these three teachers, our principal, Arnold B. Swift, remained. This year a boys' foods class was started. Thomas Nacca, All-Scholastic, was a member of the graduating class.
- In 1956, our yearbook is dedicated to all students. Dr. James Wishart remained as our principal and Mr. White came as our new vice-principal. Jefferson High became co-champion on the gridiron. Richard Giancurcio, All-Scholastic, was a member of the graduating class.

KYNENICEGOIN' FACULTY

TO mold the character, ideals, and hopes of youth of that impressionable age is the great task of our faculty. For their un-failing patience and understanding we are deeply grateful. "Kynenicegoin'," friends.

Yearbook Staff

WE of "The Statesman" Staff for the year 1956 deem it a great honor to be able to publish this book. We hope that we have made this, the 1956 yearbook, one of which you can be proud.

As you turn these pages, we hope they will recall for you a few of the fleeting hours spent at Jeff in the past five years. It is our wish that you may derive as much enjoyment from reading "The Statesman" as we have experienced in bringing this edition to completion.

SOCIOLOGY

THE value in our discussion depends on how it changes our thinking about our emotions, behavior, decisions and plans. We leave adolescence and move toward maturity.

LATIN

THE study of Latin aims to give to the pupil, through a knowledge of the language and literature of ancient Rome, the reasons we owe a great debt to Rome.

FRENCH

IN French the student has the opportunity to understand the language as it is spoken, to express himself in the foreign tongue, and to write the language with exactness.

SENIOR COUNCIL

THE Class of 1956 was involved in several activities of both social and business nature. The class supported and promoted these activities enthusiastically. The credit for the conduct of these successful activities must be shared by the entire group. However, the job of organizing and planning these activities fell to the Senior Council, a group of five elected officers and nine representatives, who worked eagerly and tirelessly.

JUNIOR COUNCIL

IT is the task of the Junior Council to organize and guide the social life of the Junior Class. Together with the class sponsors, the council plans a class party and a prom, as well as several fund raising enterprises. The council has been working hard to make this an outstanding year for the Junior Class.

10TH GRADE COUNCIL

WITH the assistance of the class advisors, Miss Cianciosi and Mr. Zappella, the steering committee planned and conducted the election of 1958 class officers. Leadership of the class was under Benjamin Giosiffi, president; Frances Gianni, vice-president; Michael Mammano, secretary; and Sam Cira, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FIFTEEN per cent of the Senior Class may be selected to the National Honor Society on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service to the school. To be eligible for consideration, a student must be in the upper third of his class scholastically and be in either his Junior or his Senior year. As the years go by, the other outstanding students will wear the symbolic key, carrying on the ideals and tradition of the National Honor Society.

FLORENTINE SOCIETY

THE Florentine Society encourages appreciation and understanding of Italian culture through group projects, guest speakers and individual research. By raising funds for the Jefferson Scholarship Fund, this group has helped former students to complete their advanced courses.

JEFFERSON JOURNAL

GROWING pains coupled with a decrease in assigned supervision time faced our staff at the beginning of the year. With hard work and lots of energy we have overcome these problems and the Journal reflects the life and events of the school. The staff is compensated for its efforts by the excitement that always develops when we hear the cry in the halls "The Journal is out."

REFRESHMENT COMMITTEE

THE Refreshment Committee works early and late to supply us with those goodies that have become so much a part of our dances and games. In addition it helps the Students' Association treasurer in meeting the budget.

WHEN school opens in the fall, the new Eighth-Graders are recognized everywhere. They are the lost, the puzzled, the confused ones. They are the ones who have to adjust to a new building, new teachers, new rules. During the first weeks they are given special instruction to make them acquainted with our school and to give them the information they need to meet many of their new problems. It is a pleasure to see them now, near the end of their first year, oriented, acclimated and as much a part of Jefferson as the building itself.

 Keep your pride under in victory.
 Keep a sound soul, a clean mind, and a healthy body.

Football Squad

AFTER second place finishes in '53 and '54, the football team earned the co-championship in 1955, and probably the outright title in the minds of all who followed the local gridiron results. The team finished the season with a convincing 41-20 victory over Marshall, its 6th victory against one loss to co-champion Edison, the best record in city football circles. With eight of these champions graduating, it is difficult to predict whether or not an outright title is in prospect for 1956.

Moments To Remember

JEFFERSON, from the day we entered its hallowed halls to the day when we shall leave them, has given us "moments to remember."

Remember when we were Eighth graders, just five short years ago. Bumping into big Ninth and Tenth graders and enormous Juniors and Seniors, we timidly walked down these large, strange halls. We were ashamed to be just "little Eighth graders."

Well, surprisingly enough, that year went by. We were Freshmen. We were really considered to be in high school. Remember when we walked into school that bright September morning, we couldn't help saying, "Look at those little Eighth graders."

Time, as we look back, seems to have flown by. The tenth grade was here already. This was the year that things really started popping. We participated in more activities, went more places, and became better acquainted with our classmates. Remember the fun we had at the Tenth Grade Party?

Then we were Juniors, confident Juniors. The Junior Party, the Junior Prom, running here, running there, being more a part of Jeff every day. Remember the day we moved up into the Senior seats?

Then soon, too soon, we were Seniors. The big year, the one for which we had waited so long, was now upon us. Remember the first time we walked out of the assembly while the rest of the students remained seated? We still polish our rings and look at them every now and then with great admiration. Remember the Senior Luncheons, the beautiful Senior Prom, and of course, the Senior Banquet. This by far, was our most memorable year.

Now as we are preparing to go our separate ways, we think back on our five years. We hold dear to us our second parents, our teachers, who made our years, years to remember.

Truly, we have had "moments to remember."
